

REMARKS

The Applicants acknowledge the Examiner's remarks under Final Rejection items 1 – 4 and concur that Claims 1 – 10 and 54 – 62, as previously presented, are pending and the objections or rejections of record which were not repeated in the Office Action had been overcome.

5. Double Patenting

The Applicants' Agent reviewed the remarks as to the reiteration of the double patenting rejection of the present claims.

6. Terminal Disclaimer

The Examiner has pointed out the inadvertent error in the Terminal Disclaimer that was filed in the previous paper.

7. Telephonic Interview

The Applicants' Agent contacted Mr. Saidha, the Examiner, on September 20, 2007 to gain confirmation that the filing of a corrected Terminal Disclaimer would put the present case in condition for allowance. This was confirmed by Mr. Saidha.

Conclusion:

Therefore the Applicants' Agent has attached hereto a fresh Declaration Under 37 CFR § 1.130 and a corrected Terminal Disclaimer.

Appl. No. 10/822,370; Filed April 12, 2004
Amendment Dated September 21, 2007
Reply to Office Action of October 26, 2006

The Applicants' Agent wishes to thank the Examiner for his consideration of this submission. The Agent respectfully submits that the present application is now in condition for allowance and solicits a timely notice thereof.

Respectfully submitted,
